Call for International Experts (All Disciplines) Participation in External Evaluation and Accreditation Panels

The Hellenic Authority for Higher Education (HAHE) invites international experts from all disciplines to serve on External Evaluation and Accreditation Panels responsible for the accreditation of undergraduate and postgraduate study programmes offered by Greek Higher Education Institutions (HEIs).

The HAHE maintains a Register of Experts that includes Greek and international scholars of established reputation, professors affiliated with non-Greek HEIs, and distinguished researchers from international research centers and institutes. The Register also includes stakeholders with relevant professional experience, executives with demonstrated expertise, and members of scientific associations, who are able to assess the contribution of study programmes to professional practice in an objective manner.

A. Eligibility

i. Academic staff

- PhD degree
- Rank of an Associate or Full Professor
- Experience in higher education administration
- Experience in quality assurance activities (e.g. internal quality assurance system and/or programme evaluation/accreditation) in Higher Education

Desirable qualifications:

- Teaching and/or research in Total Quality Management
- Ability to read and understand working documents in Greek

ii. Members of research or professional bodies

- Membership in recognised research institutions or professional bodies
- Experience in quality assurance activities

Desirable qualification:

- Ability to read and understand working documents in Greek

B. Requirements

All the experts are expected to:

- Demonstrate full proficiency in English
- Possess an in-depth knowledge of the Standards and Guidelines for Quality Assurance in the European Higher Education Area (ESG) and familiarity with relevant processes

Ανθρώπινο Δυναμικό και
Κοινωνική Συνοχή

- Have strong analytical, digital, and interpersonal skills
- Comply with the HAHE Code of Conduct
- Adhere to the Panel's schedule and assigned tasks

C. Selection

HAHE reviews all applications and informs candidates of the outcome.

Please note that inclusion in the HAHE Register of Experts does not automatically imply selection, participation, or assignment to a panel.

D. Accreditation Review Procedure

Each External Evaluation and Accreditation Panel consists of five members, including one student. Selected experts are required to attend a short training session prior to participation; attendance is mandatory, and absence may result in exclusion from the panel.

During the training, participants are provided with the necessary guidance on the review procedure. The review includes a site visit, conducted either on-site or online, depending on the programme under review. Following the visit, panel members prepare and submit the Accreditation Report to HAHE.

E. Financial Compensation

Each panel member receives a daily allowance (€100) for a maximum of six days. Travel and accommodation expenses (where applicable) are covered by HAHE..

F. Application

Interested experts who meet the eligibility criteria outlined in Section A are invited to apply by submitting their CV via the HAHE Register of Experts at <http://experts.ethaae.gr>

This call remains open on a rolling basis in order to continuously enrich HAHE's database of international experts across disciplines.
